LSAS (Life Saving Anaesthesia Skills)

LSAS training of MBBS doctors (Asst. Surgeon) have been started since October 2007 in three Medical Colleges of Odisha. It is a 18 weeks training programme, out of which 12 weeks at Govt. Medical Colleges and 6weeks at DHHs. During FY-11-12, 89 MBBS Doctors have been trained on LSAS and joined at DHH, SDH and FRUs and providing anaesthesia for C.S cases.

Dr. Durgi Soren was awarded at National Level for her outstanding performance in LSAS

LSAS training- Due to lack of Anaesthesia Specialists, Department of Health & Family Welfare. Govt. of Odisha decided to provide short course LSAS training. Dr Durgi Soren, Asst. Surgeon of Mayurbhanj had undergone 18 weeks LSAS training at PG department of Anesthesiology- VSS Medical College & Hospital, Burla ,Sambalpur under the direct guidance of Prof. Dr. Ramesh Ch. Samantaray and Associate Prof. Dr. Mihir Kumar Panda.

Dr. D. Soren is receiving the Award

Dr. Soren is quite confident to provide LSAS in EmOC cases. As per the recommendation of State Dr. Soren was nominated for National level Award for LSAS and honoured on 11th April'2012 at Jaipur, Rajasthan by the Hon'ble Union minister, Health & Family Welfare & Minister of State on the eve of Safe Motherhood Day.